

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

MARCH 3, 2018

LIBERATION!

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

This year's theme is Honour Our Sisters! Celebrating our Victories!
Strengthening our Resistance on Indigenous Land!

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8 every year since 1910. It is a global celebration.

The struggle for women's equality continues. Just look at the Trump administration and his handling of abuse charges against men in his party.

Our indigenous Sisters face double discriminations when they are judged not only as First Nations but also as women. Women and girls in the underdeveloped world are often denied education.

International Women's Day is coming. Let your voice be heard! Attend the Rally and March on March 3, 2018. Make some noise and bring whistles, drums, maracas and your voice!!!
